Hawaii Construction Career Day is an event where participants have the opportunity to learn about careers in construction, engineering and architecture.

Participants experience first-hand what it's like to work on a construction site. They operate heavy equipment and machinery, take a ride in a boom lift, test their skills on a crane simulator, and engage in all kinds of interactive activities and skill-building competitions.

For More Information about this event and Apprenticeship Week, please visit: www.honolulu.hawaii.edu/apprenticeshiphawaii