

Guide to the Hawaii Newspaper Index

The Hawaii Newspaper Index covers articles published in Hawaii's two major daily newspapers, the Honolulu Advertiser and the Honolulu Star-Bulletin. The Index does not contain the full-text of the newspaper articles - it contains citations to help find articles. It is a service of the Hawaii State Public Library System. Coverage: 1989 – present.

Accessing the Hawaii Newspaper Index

- Start at the library's homepage - <http://honolulu.hawaii.edu/library/>
- Under Research Tools, click the Find Articles link
- Scroll down the page and click the Hawaii Newspaper Index link

Basic Search Screen

Enter your search term(s) in the box:
RAIL TRANSIT

Click on the arrow to run the search.

Click on a title to review the full details of the citation.

The record will indicate the newspaper that published the article, as well as date [YYYY MM DD], page, title, subject headings, and notes.

E-mail Multiple Citations to Yourself

To easily keep track of your research, you can create a list of useful newspaper citations and e-mail them to yourself for future reference. Simply click the “Add to my list” button next to the record(s) you want.
