About Māla o Niuhelewai

Ka Māla o Niuhelewai was created by Kumu Alapaki Luke to serve as an outdoor classroom and hands-on venue for students, faculty, staff and the Kapālama community to better understand mālama ‘āina practices for a sustainable community food system in Hawai‘i. The program represents a community effort, with students, staff and faculty from Hawaiian studies, carpentry, welding, automotive and liberal arts as well as local organizations and schools all working together to promote mālama ‘āina.
