Mālama ʻĀina Days are coordinated through a partnership with the Hawaiian Center, Nā Papa Hawaiʻi and TRIO-SSS.

About Kahana

Nuhi-Panaewa Loʻi is located in the mauka region of Kahana Valley, which receives as much as 300”/year of rain near the back of the valley and a stream flow that averages 28mgd. In 1999, residents and volunteers restored the ‘auwai and several loʻi which provides subsistence poi, kalo and lūʻau for the communities, schools and ‘ohana.
