BRIEF PROGRAM DESCRIPTION/GOALS:
The Fire and Environmental Emergency Response Program courses are provided to meet the needs of the in-service professional as well as students who are not employed by the Fire Service. This Program is designed to prepare students academically for the Fire Service Field, i.e., insurance adjuster, investigator, and safety and building inspector.

DEGREES THAT CAN BE EARNED:
Associate in Applied Science (AAS)
Certificate of Achievement (CA)

WHAT IS UNIQUE ABOUT THE PROGRAM:
- Only college level FIRE training program on O’ahu.
- Hands-on classes gives students an opportunity to get ProBoard Certifications in Hazardous Materials and Firefighter, emergency medical technician B and wildland certifications.
- Opportunity to apply for fire recruit position as a Student Trainee position through the Pathways Program with the federal government.
- The program is WASC approved for full distance delivery. Inquire with program counselor.

ITEMIZED ESTIMATE OF EDUCATIONAL COSTS:
- Tuition based on total credits taken.
- Books approximately $200 - $300 per semester.

PROGRAM PREREQUISITES:
Check the College catalog or the program webpage for the most current program prerequisites.