QUICK FACTS

BRIEF PROGRAM DESCRIPTION/GOALS:
Honolulu Community College offers its students the opportunity to study Psychology in a program leading to an Academic Subject Certificate in Psychology. The academic credential is included on student transcripts and can point to a variety of professional and academic fields related directly or indirectly to Psychology.

DEGREES THAT CAN BE EARNED:
Academic Subject Certificate in Psychology (ASC)

WHAT IS UNIQUE ABOUT THE PROGRAM:
• Get a head start on a psychology major or a major in a related field! The ASC in Psychology enhances the value of your Associate of Arts (Liberal Arts) degree by providing coursework to support students declaring a Psychology major within the College of Arts and Sciences at the University of Hawai‘i at Mānoa.
• Experience classroom demonstrations and presentations, group discussions and projects.
• Learn about applying psychology to everyday life.

ITEMIZED ESTIMATE OF EDUCATIONAL COSTS:
• Tuition plus cost of books and supplies.

PROGRAM PREREQUISITES:
Check the College catalog or the program webpage for the most current program prerequisites.