Native Hawaiian Culture and Sustainability - Mālama ʻāina

Come hear about the many opportunities at HCC to learn about Native Hawaiian indigenous knowledge and sustainability ethics

Honolulu Community College Library, Wednesday, April 4, 1:00 PM

Presenters:

Professor Alapaki Luke
Chair, Kūlana Hawai‘i: Hawaiian Programs Division Coordinator (Nā Papa Hawai‘i) and Professor in Hawaiian Studies
* Talking about Ka Māla o Niuhelewai - HonCC’s Living Learning Lab

Professor Kalani Flores
Culture and Place-Based Coordinator, Hawaiian Studies Instructor, Title III Project Coordinator
* Talking about Ho‘āla Hou - Culture and Place-Based Learning at HonCC

Professor Robert Silva
Automotive Technology Program
* Talking about community restoration projects such as: Lo‘i Kalo Park, Kualoa, the Hawai‘i Botanical Society, the Alawai Watershed Association

Sponsored by: HonCC Library and the Sustainability Committee   Light Refreshments provided
If you need disability accommodations, please contact Student Access at 808 844-2392 or accesshcc-l@lists.hawaii.edu 1-2 weeks prior to the event. We will do our best to arrange reasonable and appropriate accommodations. Mahalô